

SMG AMONG PUERTO RICO'S 20 BEST EMPLOYERS

SMG is the number one company in the management of facilities around the world. With more than 200 venues, SMG manages 1.5 millions of seats in the entertainment industry and over 10 million square feet of exhibition space. SMG the management company for the Puerto Rico Convention Center and the Coliseo de Puerto Rico José Miguel Agrelot is proud to have been recognized as one of the 20 Best Employers of Puerto Rico.

This acknowledgement is of great significance to SMG as they have only been operating in Puerto Rico for 5 years, the minimum required time by Hewitt Associates, a human resources company that has been conducting the Best Employers studies. SMG understands that the human resources are the most important assets for a company and together with their best practices it provides successful business results.

SMG believes in creating the right environment and encourages its employees to work with the energy and passion that will ultimately make a difference which translates into great customer service and high efficiency.
